

2020-2021 Resilience BC Hub & Spoke Grant Recipients

Resilience BC Hub &amp; Spoke Organization	Communities	Project/Program Summary	Grant Amount
Cariboo Family Enrichment Centre Society	100 Mile House	To host a public art show in collaboration with the local high school and to showcase students' personal responses to racism, culture, and community.	$7,500
Archway Community Services Society	Abbotsford and Mission	To engage community members to share their stories of resilience in the face of racism, and to develop response protocol and deliver training.	$15,000
Burnaby Family Life	Burnaby	To provide training on moving from active bystanders to allies, to host an anti-racism and discrimination community forum, and to design an interfaith directory of supports for people affected by racism and hate.	$10,000
Multicultural & Immigrant Services Association of North Vancouver Island (MISA)	Campbell River, Port Hardy, Port McNeil, North Island	To lead community viewings and discussions with media related to the topic of racism and hate, and to review anti-racism policies in Port McNeil.	$20,000
Inter-Cultural Association of Greater Victoria	Capital/Victoria, Langford/Colwood/Metchosin/Highlands/Sooke, Central/North Saanich/Sidney	To hold community consultations engaging individuals impacted by racism and hate crimes, and to assess their collective needs to develop a regional response protocol among other initiatives.	$20,000
Chilliwack Community Services	Chilliwack, Agassiz/Harrison	To develop a community protocol and a social media campaign.	$10,000
Community Justice Centre of the Comox Valley Society	Comox Valley (includes Comox, Courtenay and Cumberland)	To develop and share anti-racism and hate policies designed for local organizations and agencies.	$5,000

2020-2021 Resilience BC Hub & Spoke Grant Recipients

Cowichan Valley Intercultural & Immigrant Society	Cowichan Valley Regional District	To develop resources and a platform for local dialogue on racism, to develop workshops led by BIPOC on conflict resolution, and to create a community response protocol.	$7,500
Cranbrook & District Restorative Justice Society	Cranbrook - East Kootenay	To revise community response protocol to anti-racism in consultation with community, to provide training for more effective response using the protocol, and to develop a local online reporting tool.	$5,000
Dawson Creek Literacy Society	Dawson Creek & Fort St John	To offer a course on understanding racism and review the community response protocol to hate activity and racism.	$10,000
Deltassist Family and Community Services	Delta	To develop a social media administrator & moderator training curriculum to help local social media community spaces improve their capacity to respond to online racism and hate, to offer workshops on active witnessing and bystander intervention, and to refine community response protocol to incidents of racism.	$10,000
Free Rein Associates Training Ltd. for the Hope Inclusion Project (HIP)	Hope	To work with local educators and school district leaders to create in-school initiatives at the primary and intermediate levels, and to engage younger children to affect the impacts of racism and hate.	$7,500
Houston Link to Learning Society	Houston	To engage youth on mental health, wellness, racism and hate through activities with local Indigenous artists.	$7,500
North Okanagan Social Planning Society	Kelowna, Penticton/South Okanagan, Vernon, Salmon Arm/Shuswap, Kamloops/Thompson, Summerland	To establish regional response protocols to racism, empower community partners, and to build capacity to support their local anti-racism network/protocol and/or host their own Respect Lives Here events.	$35,000

2020-2021 Resilience BC Hub & Spoke Grant Recipients

The Tamitik Status of Women Association	Kitimat	To hold a Women's Gathering event and engage local government to adopt diversity policies.	$7,500
Langley Community Services Society	Langley	To facilitate dialogues between youth to increase awareness about racism, discrimination, and hatred in a changing community, and to create public artwork.	$5,000
Liminal Spaces Consulting	Nanaimo and Ladysmith	To build a community response protocol to hate activity and racism, provide training, and to build a network dedicated to addressing racism and hate.	$7,500
Nelson and District Arts Council	Nelson, West Kootenay	To conduct an environmental scan of the Kootenay region, to understand factors affecting inclusion in the region, and to create referrals and resources for victims of racism through an online platform.	$10,000
The Lower Mainland Purpose Society for Youth and Families	New Westminster	To create a community-led response to racism and hate, to work with community partners to identify ongoing and emerging challenges and determine ways to address them, and to work with local government on sharing local hate crime data.	$10,000
North Shore Multicultural Society	North Shore (includes West Vancouver, District and City of North Vancouver)	To develop a community response protocol to hate activity and racism, and create tools and training to implement the protocol.	$10,000
Literacy Alberni Society	Port Alberni, Parksville/Qualicum, Tofino/Ucluelet, Alberni-Clayoquot Regional District	To develop and share learning resources for responding to racism, to deepen understanding on local priorities and approaches, and to develop local response protocols.	$20,000
Lift Community Services of Qathet	Powell River, Lund/Texada, Qathet District	To host workshops and engage community members in developing creative, self-directed projects addressing racism.	$15,000

2020-2021 Resilience BC Hub & Spoke Grant Recipients

Immigrant Multicultural Services Society of Prince George	Prince George	To create a manual for the public on the impacts of racism on health, especially in the context of COVID-19, and to raise awareness and lessen the number of racist incidents in the health sector.	$10,000
North Coast Immigrant and Multicultural Services Society	Prince Rupert	To host dialogues and training on responding to racism, and to work with local schools to increase understanding of racism among school-aged children.	$7,500
Okanagan College	Revelstoke	To deliver workshops, poster campaign and to raise awareness and update community response protocol.	$5,000
Richmond Multicultural Community Services	Richmond	To promote and further implement the response protocol, and to facilitate focus groups to understand how better to support victims of hate.	$10,000
The Family Education & Support Centre	Ridge Meadows	To create a community response protocol through an Indigenous lens for racist and hate incidents, and to help service providers and community members address racism and hate events.	$5,000
Saulteau First Nations	Saulteau First Nations/Chetwynd	To lead anti-racism training, to provide support to victims of racism, and to highlight local culture.	$7,500
WitWorks Ltd.	Sechelt/Gibsons	To implement local protocol to respond to racist and hate incidents through policy work and targeted training.	$5,000
Smithers Social Planning Society (a.k.a. Smithers Bridging Committee)	Smithers	To develop a local protocol and resources for responding to racism and transform the structures and systems of institutionalized racism.	$7,500

2020-2021 Resilience BC Hub & Spoke Grant Recipients

Capilano University	Squamish/Whistler, Pemberton, Mount Currie	To develop campaigns or workshops to increase awareness and build connections.	$15,000
Multilingual Orientation Service Association for Immigrant Communities	Surrey (includes Surrey and White Rock)	To expand spoke membership, to engage local governments, to review and update racism and hate response protocol, and to hold a community forum for International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination.	$10,000
Skeena Diversity Society	Terrace	To develop a local protocol with stakeholders for responding to racism and deliver training.	$7,500
S.U.C.C.E.S.S. (also known as United Chinese Community Enrichment Services Society)	Tri-Cities (includes Coquitlam, Port Coquitlam, Port Moody, Anmore and Belcarra)	To deliver training and dialogues to raise awareness and empower community members to respond safely to incidents of racism and hate.	$10,000
Collingwood Neighbourhood House Society	Vancouver	To collaborate with the network of neighbourhood houses in Vancouver and the City of Vancouver to incorporate equity and anti-racism responses in the city's long-term planning process.	$10,000
Nechako Healthy Community Alliance	Vanderhoof	To deliver an active witness workshop and training workshops to increase capacity in the community to deliver anti-racism training and to respond to incidences using the protocol.	$7,500